1. Headquarters regrets the delay in answering references.
2. Efforts to get information on the activity of JUIIC and JFOJYIC in the United States and elsewhere have not proved very fruitful.
3. The following is an extract of an article which appeared in Bertha on 23 June 1952:

DOC. MICRO. SER.
JUN 6 1971
MICROFILMED

The paper of the Regular migrants in the USA Nevi List writes that Dobroslav Jevčević, war criminal and ill-famed Chetnik leader and co-writer of the occupation forces, arrived a short time ago in Canada. His former domicile was in Italy, where he uninterruptedly carried on his anti-Russian activity.

The paper states that every American of Yugoslav descent should ask himself how is it that this war criminal and co-worker of the Italian Fascists, who fought against the Canadian and American sons, is moving about so freely in these countries and even is actively working politically against new Yugoslavia?
